

Empowering financial advisors with innovation and trust at scale

Altruist supports financial advisors using AWS cloud infrastructure.

Scaling financial advice using AWS

Altruist, a rapidly growing financial technology company, set out to create a scalable, secure platform to better serve the $10 trillion

Improved security	+
System stability	+
Reduced costs	+

registered investment advisor market by overcoming the constraints of outdated technology used by legacy custodians. To achieve this, Altruist built a full-stack, vertically integrated custodian using Amazon Elastic Kubernetes Service (Amazon EKS), Amazon Relational Database Service (Amazon RDS), and additional AWS services. Using AWS, Altruist maintains system stability and security alongside efficiency-driving tools that financial advisors depend on to deliver better outcomes to more clients at lower costs.

Faster Innovation

"Using AWS, our engineering capabilities are on the cutting edge of security, stability, and innovation. Advisors can trust that there's a powerful, reliable engine driving our rapid growth."

Emerson Serra

Senior Director of Cloud Infrastructure Engineering, Altruist
